To facilitate learning we ask students to adhere to the Writing Center policies.

Students should:

- Prepare ahead of time; do not wait until the last minute to seek writing assistance.
- Come to each session with ideas, questions and a willingness to participate as an active learner.
- Understand that writing conferences are not drop-off or proofreading services, the writing consultants will identify parts of the writing process which the student needs to improve.
- Acknowledge that the Writing Center is not responsible for your grades or instructor comments.
- Writing consultants can assist with brainstorming and outlining, however the WC is not a place where papers are written for you.

The Academic Success Center is your ‘gathering place for success’!
